The English Institute of Sport is looking to appoint a number of Strength and Conditioning coaches to deliver regional programmes commencing in September 2010. We are interested in hearing from committed practitioners that understand the developmental requirements for players on a performance development pathway and have experience of working within performance levels of sport.

As a contractor, working within a multi-disciplinary team of staff, you will deliver strength and conditioning services to players within the RFL National Player Development Programmes. You will be required to maintain records and liaise with other S&C coaches on a weekly basis. Sessions will be held weekly (6.30pm -9.30pm) from Sept 2010 until May 2011.

You must have:

- UK Strength and Conditioning Association Accreditation
- A qualification at degree level (or equivalent) in sports science, physical education or related area
- Demonstrable experience in the provision of strength and conditioning support to athletes and coaches to improve performance. This experience should include working with groups of athletes (players) and athletes seeking to achieve national levels of performance.

- Experience of working with Team Sports would be an advantage but not a pre-requisite.

Please send your CV and a covering letter to arrive no later than @ 12 noon on 31 August 2010 (GMT) to:

Post: Senior Business Administrator, English Institute of Sport, Coleridge Road, Sheffield, S9 5DA.
